Re: People of the State of New York v. Citibank N.A., 24 Civ. 0659 — Request by Consent to Extend Deadlines and Enlarge Page Limits for Motion to Dismiss

Dear Judge Oetken:

Our firm represents defendant Citibank N.A. (“Citibank”) in the above case, and we write under Rule 3.C of Your Honor’s Individual Practices, to jointly request, along with Plaintiff, the New York Attorney General (“NYAG”), that Citibank’s forthcoming motion to dismiss, due April 2, 2024, be briefed on the following schedule and with the following enlarged page limits:

Filing	Deadline	Page Limit
Motion to Dismiss	April 2, 2024	45
Opposition	May 17, 2024	45
Reply	June 18, 2024	30

We make this request because of the number and novelty of the issues in the case and because of their complexity and importance.

In brief, NYAG’s Complaint challenges Citibank’s processes for addressing the problem of scammers infiltrating consumers’ online bank accounts to wire out money, including the legal framework Citibank uses to determine whether consumers should be reimbursed. The Complaint is 71 pages long and contains eight causes of action, based on alleged violations of various federal and state laws and regulations, several of which have been the subject of little if any litigation previously.

The parties agree that the issues justify an enlargement of the standard timetable and page limits, and respectfully request the Court “So Order” the negotiated terms reflected in this letter.

Respectfully,
